

ROW HOUSES
SOUTH FACADE

The townhouses feature a consistent two-story brick base and a consistent use of standing seam metal cladding at the walls and roof, producing an iconic image of the detached, autonomous single family house in the context of a dense and diverse urban infill development.