

PLACEMAKING

Previously, the Bath and Body Works teams were scattered throughout different buildings and lacked a sense of unity. This renovated space now houses the administrative, research, and distribution teams. The design utilizes L Brands' visual brand standards and introduces large windows to ensure employees feel connected and supported in their new remote workplace.

