

CONNECTIVITY

This second-floor break area supports both casual collaboration and quiet moments to recharge. Custom product display shelving was utilized to reinforce the brand and mission of the company while providing privacy in the adjacent conference room. An additional statement stair connects to the first-floor offices and provides efficient access to the rest of the building.

MEZZANINE

