

HISTORIC RENOVATIONS

The renovated historic buildings preserve historic elements wherever possible and new elements are minimal and compatible with the existing historic character of the building.