

The oldest structure on the farm, The Historic Barn was updated and reconfigured to provide expanded service functions and was re-clad with new wood siding, a metal roof, with a new clerestory added over the reception space (the original horse barn arena). The processional walkway through the site continues here from the barn's north entry, through the reception space and pre-function space and terminating at the outdoor courtyard.

HISTORIC BARN

FLOOR PLAN

