

The space is layered into three levels of functions, public access, semi public access and private space. The Building has urban fabric around its outside elevation and the in middle the portion the building is introverted to bring more personal space for students. Therefore student will get a feelings of their own campus building. The building is arranged with vertical semi open terraces for students works. It also helps to have the indoor outdoor relationship throughout the building

