

Vertical Courts are placed in different level to create interactive spaces for students. These spaces are similar to urban void with in a building. It helps to create introverted spaces for students within the building. The sculpture garden is placed in the 6th floor where the dorm level is placed. The space is acting as the gathering space and open work place to enhance sharing. This place also helps to bring the light inside of the buildings and maintain the indoor-outdoor relationship

